 4  1  2

If you're looking for a home you can put your own stamp on and enjoy for years to come, then this four bedroom home could be for you. In need of some modernisation but offering plenty of potential, this home would be a great purchase for someone with imagination. Set in a cul-de-sac just off Seaview Road, this property is just a short walk into Liscard where there are a good range of services and amenities including local shops, Asda supermarket and frequent bus routes. Interior: vestibule, hallway, living room, dining room and a good sized kitchen on the ground floor. Off the first floor landing there are the four bedrooms and bathroom. Exterior: pleasant rear garden. Complete with gas central heating. Viewing is highly recommended, do not delay!
