Wednesbury

Property Description

Connells Estate Agents in Wednesbury are delighted to present this fantastic three-bedroom home, a property that truly deserves a closer look. We're confident that once you step inside, you'll be impressed by the generous proportions and the potential this house holds.

The ground floor is designed for comfortable living, featuring a spacious lounge that effortlessly accommodates both relaxation and dining. The fully fitted kitchen is a practical space, equipped for all your needs, including room for utilities, and it opens out to your private rear garden. There's also a convenient storage cupboard housing the central heating boiler, adding to the property's thoughtful layout.

Venture upstairs to discover three well-sized bedrooms, offering comfortable accommodation for the whole family. The fully fitted bathroom provides a functional space for your daily routines.

Outside, the property benefits from a substantial frontage, offering ample curb appeal. The rear garden is a private haven, boasting a delightful patio area perfect for entertaining, a neat lawn, and convenient side access leading back to the front.

Location is key, and this home excels. Situated close to junction 9 of the M6, commuting is made simple. You're also within easy reach of train and metro stations, the bustling Junction 9 retail park, and a selection of popular local schools, making this an incredibly convenient place to live. This is an opportunity not to be missed!
