Crediton

Situated on the edge of Crediton, 56 Queen Elizabeth Drive enjoys lovely views out across the rooftops towards the surrounding countryside, with Dartmoor visible on the horizon on a clear day. This modern terraced home offers a flexible layout arranged over three floors and is ideal for a range of buyers wanting practical space with very little left to do.

The accommodation is well presented throughout with modern kitchen and bathroom fittings, mains gas central heating and double glazing all adding to the ease of living. Plus with the addition of solar PV's, running costs should be reduced too. On the ground floor is the integral garage, which already benefits from plumbing for a WC should a future owner wish to explore alternative uses, subject to any necessary permissions. Also on this floor is a useful office/hobby room, ideal for working from home, storage, hobbies or occasional guest use depending on requirements.

The first floor is likely to become the real hub of the home. The kitchen/dining room is well fitted with good storage and workspace, while the living room sits to the rear with doors opening directly onto the garden, creating a bright and sociable living space. On the top floor are two bedrooms along with the family bathroom.

Outside, the rear garden has been designed with ease of maintenance in mind, combining paved and gravel seating areas ideal for year round use, alongside raised planting beds adding colour and interest. To the front is off-road parking in addition to the garage.

Overall, this is a really well balanced modern home in a convenient edge of town location, combining practicality, flexibility and far reaching views.

CREDITON : An ancient market town, with a contemporary feel – only a short, 20-minute drive NW from the city of Exeter. Set in the Vale of the River Creedy, amongst gentle, rolling hills and verdant pastures. Sincerely picture postcard. Once the capital of Devon, Crediton is famed for its inspiring sandstone church and for being the birthplace of Saint Boniface in 680 AD. Its high street is a vibrant place, abuzz with trade – artisan coffee shops, roaring pubs, a farmers’ market and bakeries, jam-packed with mouthwatering delights. For those commuting it has hassle free transport links into Exeter and for schooling a prestigious community college (Queen Elizabeth’s) – with an Ofsted “outstanding” sixth form. In addition, it boasts a brilliant gym & leisure centre for New Year’s resolutions, two supermarkets for the weekly shop and a trading estate for any practical needs. All neatly held in a single valley.
