St Peters Road, Aldeburgh

Aldeburgh Lodge is a conventionally built low rise development of flats which was built in the late 1970's in an excellent location on the northern fringe of Aldeburgh commanding panoramic views out over the Thorpeness road to the beach and sea beyond.

Aldeburgh is an extremely popular seaside town, renowned for its connections with the composer Benjamin Britten, its sailing on the Rivers Alde and Ore and its heathland golf course. The High Street features an eclectic range of independent shops and brand name boutiques, restaurants and galleries, along with an independent cinema. The town is close to open countryside and nature reserves which are connected through a vast network of public footpaths. Situated within the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh is approximately two hours drive from London and the nearest train station is seven miles away at Saxmundham which, with a change at Ipswich, connects to London Liverpool Street.
