Area

The village of Heage is a much sought after residential location owing to its pleasant position nestling within open countryside, thus offering attractive walks. Heage and neighbouring Nether Heage combine to offer a good range of local amenities including post office, school, church, public houses and the recently restored and noted windmill. Heage is located between the larger towns of Belper and Ripley which offer a more comprehensive range of facilities including supermarket and leisure centres.

The property's location is also close to the A38 which gives fast access to the M1 in the north and Derby city centre in the south.

Directional Note

From our Belper office, proceed along Chapel Street to roundabout turning left onto New Road, continue through the traffic lights and past the Market Place
