Coucy Close, Woodbridge

A spacious detached house within walking distance from the town centre of Framlingham. The mid Suffolk market town of Framlingham can be traced to an entry in the Domesday Book (1086). The medieval Framlingham Castle is a major feature and tourist attraction for the area, along with its historic market place and eclectic range of buildings, variety of shops, cafes and restaurants. The town is home to the comprehensive secondary Thomas Mills High School and the independent school Framlingham College. The nearby town of Saxmundham (8 miles) has a railway station and connects to the A12 and the Suffolk Heritage Coast.

Location

Coucy Close is a small development built in the late 1990's situated close to the heart of Framlingham. The property is within close proximity to Robert Hitcham's Primary School as well as the good selection of shops, public houses and restaurants within the town.

Framlingham is best known locally for its Medieval Castle. It also has excellent schooling with both Thomas Mills High School and Framlingham College. Framlingham lies 19 miles north of the County town of Ipswich and 45 miles south-east of Norwich. The nearest railway station can be found at Campsea Ashe which has links to Ipswich from where fast Inter City rail services to London's Liverpool Street station take just over the hour. The Heritage Coastline is approximately 15 miles to the east.
