The Vernon

A Victorian Home with Ornate
Detailing and Spacious Interiors

The Vernon is a charming five bedroom Victorian neoclassical home, showcasing a finely moulded cornice and an elegantly crafted doorcase taking influence from grand coastal East Anglian homes as well as those in New England. The design reflects the ornate detailing characteristic of the Victorian era. Inside, the home features generously proportioned rooms. Large windows ensure the interiors are bright and airy, providing a comfortable and stylish living environment.

Simon Vernon-Harcourt

Architect & Director at City & Country

Named after our in-house Architect and local resident, Simon, who loves to look closely at the local vernacular architecture of the best towns and villages in East Anglia for inspiration and detail. Simon, and his team at City & Country, spent months of research photographing and copying details from their favourite historic buildings and designing the collection of houses you see within these pages and on City & Country's developments. He hopes you love them as much as we do.
