

Connells

Coniston Drive
Aylesham Canterbury

Property Description

This beautifully presented two bedroom bungalow in the sought-after Aylesham village is a rare gem.

Set in the newer part of the village, built in the 1980s, this corner plot home is attached to just one other property, offering privacy and a spacious feel.

The driveway provides off-road parking, making it easy to park and unload your shopping with no hassle. The conservatory is a standout feature, ideal for relaxing on sunny days or enjoying cozy winter afternoons. The low-maintenance garden adds to the appeal, making it perfect for anyone who appreciates easy care, whether you're a retiree or simply looking for a hassle-free outdoor space.

Inside, the living room is impressively spacious, offering more room than you'd typically expect from a bungalow in this price range. This home also has two double bedrooms, a handy entrance porch and family bathroom. With just a little personal touch, this area can be transformed into the perfect home retreat.

Aylesham village boasts a convenient parade of shops, and with excellent bus links to Canterbury and a nearby train station, commuting is a breeze.

Whether you're a first-time buyer, investor, or retiree looking for a move-in ready, low-maintenance home with no onward chain, this property is sure to tick all the boxes. Don't miss the opportunity-arrange a viewing today!
