Cromwell Road, South Kensington

£3,000 Per Month

A bright one-bedroom apartment situated on the sixth floor of the popular Point West development, benefiting from lift access, concierge and porter services. The flat offers a well-proportioned reception room, open-plan kitchen, double bedroom and modern bathroom, with excellent natural light and far-reaching views across London. AI-enhanced marketing has been used to improve presentation and help illustrate the property's potential, although prospective tenants should rely on physical inspections and their own assessment of the accommodation.

Ideally located on Cromwell Road, the property is just moments from Gloucester Road Underground Station, providing excellent transport links across London. Residents can enjoy easy access to a wide selection of shops, cafés, restaurants and local amenities, whilst the open green spaces of Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens are also within walking distance. Great for students going to Imperial College.
