Ryedale House, 58 - 60,
York - City Centre
YO1 9NX

£580,000

Situated within one of York's most iconic residential developments, this stunning second-floor apartment offers contemporary luxury living in the heart of the city. Ryedale House enjoys a commanding position on the banks of the River Foss, with far-reaching views over York's historic skyline, including Clifford's Tower and York Minster.

Finished to an exceptional standard, the apartment boasts floor-to-ceiling glazing that floods the open-plan living space with natural light, showcasing the uninterrupted panoramic vistas. The sleek, modern kitchen is fitted with a bespoke, oak built walk-in pantry and a full range of high-spec NEFF appliances, while both bathrooms feature stylish Vessini fittings and a luxurious finish.

The layout comprises a generous living/dining kitchen with direct access to a sun terrace, two double bedrooms – each with an en suite – a separate WC, a large cloakroom and a useful utility room. Underfloor heating runs throughout, adding to the comfort and sophistication of the home.

Ryedale House offers residents a level of convenience and security rarely found in city centre living, with a concierge service, secure, dedicated undercroft parking, lifts to all floors, and a private storage locker on the same level as the apartment. Additional benefits include bicycle storage, refuse chutes, sprinkler system, and well-maintained communal spaces.
