ACCOMMODATION

Albert Road is a highly-desireable quiet residential no-through road in the very heart of Henley-on-Thames. This Victorian mid-terrace has been painstakingly extended and refurbished to a high standard including a fabulous open-plan kitchen living space.

The timber front door with feature arched window over opens into the wide hallway, with high ceilings, original Victorian decorative features, and useful understairs storage including the combi gas fired boiler and the underfloor heating manifolds. A further door opens to the inner hall with engineered oak floor with underfloor heating throughout.

An impressive open-plan kitchen / dining / living space has a vaulted ceiling with downlighters and six electric skylights, featuring a wall-mounted control unit allowing both internal and external shutter closure, and window opening. This allows for keeping cool in the summer and warm in the winter. The kitchen is an attractive dark blue, with bespoke hand-built oak in-frame wall and base units, with a large kitchen island with breakfast bar and white marble worktops over, and an inset double ceramic Belfast sink. Integrated appliances include a new Bosch dishwasher, a fridge-freezer, and a freestanding ILVE stainless steel 2-oven range cooker with Rotisserie, with an assortment of oven fittings, 5 gas hobs including a hotplate, and a built-in extractor hood over, which vents externally.

The island breakfast bar features electricity points for convenience and a chandelier-style light over, with custom-fitted bar stools, and a display shelf at the end. The fitted wall and base units include several hidden wooden drawers for discreet storage, and there is a full-height wine storage unit. A double-doored cupboard has power integrated, and can be used either as a recessed home office space, or as a coffee station. The rear of this room features a wall-to-wall bank of bi-fold double glazed doors, leading out to the courtyard garden.

The ground-floor bathroom is a generous space with a wash hand basin set into a cabinet, a panelled bath with shower over, a heated towel rail and a w.c. and a deep storage sound proofed cupboard with plumbing for a washing machine.

The large room to the front is currently in use as a double bedroom, and features a bay window, and a fireplace with connection for a gas fire. (Agent's note, it currently houses a free-standing electric fire).

From the entrance hallway and up the carpeted stairs to the first floor landing, where the loft hatch is accessible, and where a stained glass double-glazed window provides light and character.

Bedroom 1 is a generous double, with a modern double-glazed sash window overlooking the delightful views towards Church Street and its pretty flint cottages.

Bedroom 2 is currently in use as a sitting room, but is otherwise a large double bedroom and has an attractive ornamental fireplace, and soundproofing underneath the carpet for the purposes of convenience to the ground floor.

Bedroom 3 is currently used a 2nd kitchen / breakfast room with a front aspect. There is a range of fitted wall and base units and space for a slimline freestanding electric cooker, a small stainless steel sink and space for an under-counter fridge.

The shower room is a tiled space with a wash hand basin set into a cabinet, a heated towel rail, a w.c. and a walk-in shower.

Agent's Note: The vendor advises that the simple removal of a ground floor stud-wall, and removal of the first floor kitchenette units would be possible to create a single 3 bedroom property with ease.

Outside

The Southwest-facing enclosed walled garden has been tastefully refurbished and features a raised composite deck set on a robust concrete and hardwood-framed base. Brick wall raised beds double as seating around the periphery, and are planted with perennials, espaliered apple trees, a productive fig tree and a pear tree. A wisteria has been trained along the back wall, and ferns occupy the attractive shade bed. An over-sized garden umbrella connects to the rear wall of the house via hooks, creating an awning for shade. Access to the rear of the property is via a gate to the locked alleyway, and is shared with the neighbours.

To the front, the brick wall which edges the front garden has had 2 metal bicycle storage hoops fitted, for secure storage.

LOCATION

Living in Albert Road

Albert Road is a quiet cul-de-sac of Victorian terraced homes, conveniently situated in the town centre and has a friendly community.

Henley town centre has a vibrant dining and entertaining scene, with a plethora of independent restaurants, cafes and bars, independent and big-named retailers, a Waitrose supermarket, weekly farmer's market, galleries and boutiques. A 3-screen cinema, the Kenton theatre and a busy social calendar includes Henley Royal Regatta, Henley Festival and Henley Literary Festival.

The commuter is well provided for with the M4/M40 giving access to London, Heathrow, West Country and Midlands. Henley Station has links with London Paddington via Twyford for the TfL Elizabeth Line (Crossrail) 55 minutes.
