This exceptional luxury Manhattan-style apartment is located within The Pinnacle, one of Central London's most anticipated new residential developments. Positioned on the first floor, this intelligently designed home completely maximises both usable space and daily functionality for its residents. The property features a spacious, modern open-plan living area beautifully complemented by expansive floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the entire space with excellent natural light while offering truly impressive city views.

The thoughtful layout provides a completely separate and well-defined sleeping area, ensuring ultimate privacy away from the main living space. Additionally, the apartment boasts a sleek, contemporary family bathroom. Finished to an incredibly high specification throughout, the property benefits from premium materials, elegant finishes, and top-tier modern fittings.

Residents will also enjoy access to premium development amenities, excellent transport links across Central London, and close proximity to local boutique shops, fine dining restaurants, and vibrant cultural hubs. This represents an absolute must-see opportunity for discerning professional buyers, corporate investors, or those seeking a premier city base.
