Located a short walk away from Bangor's main high street, 87 Gladstone Terrace is a four-bedroom house share perfect for the student who wants to live close to the action. All bedrooms are spacious and furnished with a bed, desk to work from and varying storage furniture. The living room is spacious with ample floor space and a sofa that makes for a relaxing and social area. The dining room connects to the living room and contains an additional sofa, as well as a large dining table and chair for mealtimes. The kitchen is of a generous size and has multiple windows that ensure the room is well lit. In this room a washing machine, fridge freezer and oven can also be found. The bathroom contains both a bathtub and overhead shower, as well as a toilet and sink. For extra convenience a WC is located close to the kitchen and contains both a toilet and sink. This property benefits from being within close walking distance of all Bangor has to offer, including a lively night scene, as well as plenty of shopping and dining venues. Just a fifteen-minute walk away the main University building can be found, as well as Upper Bangor's high street.
