ABOUT THE PROPERTY:

The impressive kitchen, dining and day room is undoubtedly the heart of the home. Beautifully appointed with extensive contemporary cabinetry, marble work surfaces and a central island, the space has been designed for both family life and entertaining. A relaxed sitting area features a contemporary gas fire, while the dining area enjoys views over the garden, with bifold doors creating a natural connection to the outside. Underfloor heating continues into the entrance hall, which provides useful storage and a guest cloakroom. Double doors open into an elegant separate sitting room featuring a large bay window and gas fire.

The first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, both with bespoke fitted wardrobes and luxurious ensuite shower rooms and a study/nursery. Two further bedrooms and a beautifully appointed family bathroom occupy the second floor, with one bedroom featuring a Velux balcony window offering glimpses of Poole Harbour and the Purbeck Hills beyond; however, it should be noted that the head height is restricted in this room.

OUTSIDE:

The level rear garden provides an attractive extension of the living accommodation, with direct access from the dining area making it particularly well suited to outdoor entertaining and family activities. A detached home office offers a valuable separate workspace, while the garage provides additional practicality. The peaceful cul de sac position adds to the property's appeal.

LOCATION:

Marina Drive enjoys a peaceful cul de sac setting in the heart of Lilliput, just a short walk from Poole Harbour, Whitecliff Park and Parkstone Bay Marina, home to the popular South Deep waterfront restaurant. Lilliput Village offers excellent cafés, shops and everyday amenities, while Sandbanks Beach is less than two miles away. Parkstone railway station provides direct services to London Waterloo.
