Recently remodelled and reintroduced to the market, this stunning detached home occupies a substantial plot within the sought-after village of Shepperton. The property offers nearly 200m² of versatile living space, characterised by a seamless blend of Victorian character and contemporary design. Having been extensively upgraded by the current owner within the last two years, including the modernisation of most internal fixtures and systems, the home is presented in true "turn-key" condition. The ground floor is thoughtfully designed for both formal hosting and practical family life. A spacious front reception room provides a traditional retreat, while the rear of the house opens into an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining area & family space. Functional requirements are well-catered for by a dedicated utility room and a separate plant room. Additionally, a convenient ground-floor shower room provides direct access to a charming external garden room, offering a unique transition between the indoor and outdoor spaces. The upper floor comprises four generous bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, ensuring ample accommodation for a growing family. Externally, the property is equally impressive. Gated access leads to a large driveway with significant off-street parking, a substantial double garage, and a detached studio unit—an ideal space for a professional home office, private gym, or creative studio. The rear garden has been professionally presented and features brand-new boundary fencing, creating a private and polished outdoor environment. For those looking to add even further value, the property is sold with the benefit of approved planning permission for a two-storey extension; specific reference numbers are available upon request. Ideally situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, the home is approximately 0.4 miles from Shepperton Station and within a short walk of the High Street and local schools. EPC Rating: E
