Property

This charming Grade II listed cottage in the popular village of Winfarthing combines character features with flexible accommodation. The main cottage includes two bedrooms and a wealth of period charm, most notably in the spacious living room with its impressive inglenook fireplace. The living space flows into a bright and airy garden room with full views down the garden, creating an inviting space to relax or entertain. The kitchen sits to the side of the property, offering a practical layout that connects well with the living areas. There is also a convenient downstairs WC, while upstairs you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the rear of the plot is a substantial double garage with a self-contained annexe. This annexe has its own entrance and comprises a ground floor kitchen and large shower room, while upstairs is a generous studio-style bedroom/living space measuring approximately 5.96m x 3.37m. This setup offers superb versatility—ideal for guest accommodation, a home office or running a business without impacting the main residence.

Outside

Approached via a long gravel driveway, the property sits well back from the road and offers parking for several vehicles. The attractive garden extends to around 0.22 acres and is predominantly laid to lawn, bordered by mature hedging and a variety of thoughtfully planted flower beds that create different areas of interest throughout. A generous landscaped patio is accessed directly from the garden room and provides the perfect spot for outdoor dining or relaxation. A winding path leads through the garden to a useful shed and a greenhouse, both of which are tucked discreetly to the rear and offer great storage and growing space for keen gardeners. With a wonderful sense of privacy, the garden is both practical and picturesque—complementing the peaceful, tucked-away setting of this unique home.
