A newly refurbished, interior-designed two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment in one of London's most desirable areas, set within the heart of South Kensington. Positioned on the second floor of a quiet, modern building with lift access, the property combines luxury and practicality with high-quality bespoke furnishings and a contemporary finish throughout.

The apartment offers a stylish, well-planned layout ideal for professional tenants, particularly couples, and is presented as brand new to the rental market. It benefits from a calm residential setting while still being close to central London amenities and transport links.

Tenants have access to on-site building management, professional maintenance teams, and a 24-hour emergency helpline, ensuring a smooth and well-supported renting experience.
