The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Situated on the edge of Carmarthen town, this attractive detached bungalow occupies a position within the highly desirable cul-de-sac of Maes Y Dderwen. Offering a wonderful balance of comfort and convenience, the property benefits from easy access to local amenities, transport links, and is within walking distance of the town centre.

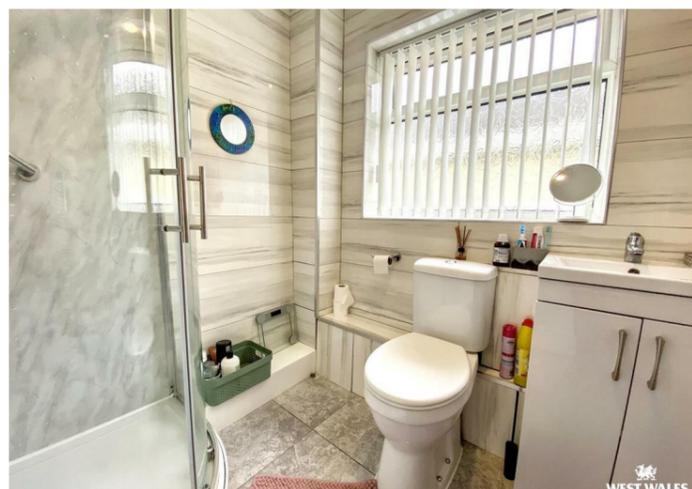

The bungalow is ideal for a range of buyers including those seeking single-level living. At the heart of the home is a bright open plan living/dining room, creating a sociable and welcoming space for both everyday living and entertaining. A shaker style kitchen offers ample fitted units and provides side access from the driveway.

The property provides two double bedrooms along with a third single bedroom, offering flexibility for family living, guests, or a home office. A contemporary shower room serves the accommodation, completing the internal layout. Light-filled interiors throughout enhance the sense of space and comfort. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing and is fitted with gas central heating.

Externally, the property benefits from ample driveway parking, along with a single garage providing additional storage or parking. To the rear, there is a low maintenance patio garden, ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, University of South Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and is home to a shopping centre, a Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served direct trains from West Wales to London.
