IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Pull up onto your own driveway, with a secure private garage right in front of you, ideal for unloading kids, groceries, or simply arriving home without the usual juggling act. There's also handy access to the garden shed, perfect for storing bikes or outdoor gear without bringing them through the house.

Step inside and head upstairs to the first floor, where the home opens up. The galley kitchen comes first, with country-style white cabinetry running along both sides, offering generous storage. Wooden worktops provide plenty of preparation space, keeping everything practical and within easy reach.

Next door, the reception room is a large, welcoming space, filled with natural light from a wide window. A wooden mantelpiece anchors the room, while soft carpeting underfoot adds warmth and comfort.

There are two bright bedrooms on this level, along with a family bathroom. The main bedroom benefits from a smart, custom-fitted wardrobe - one less thing to think about - while the second bedroom features a bay window. East-facing, it welcomes in the first light of the day, making mornings feel a little gentler.

And then there's the garden. Measuring 12.65m at its longest and 10.55m at its widest, it's a generous outdoor space with plenty of potential. A paved path leads you in between portions of lawn, taking you on one side to an area for outdoor dining and a shed on the other.

The already converted loft adds a standout feature: a spacious bedroom with its own bathroom. Eaves storage wraps around two sides of the room, ideal for stowing away seasonal items, suitcases or camping gear. Two large windows flood the space with light, and their west-facing aspect means you'll enjoy sunshine right through to the evening.

WHAT ELSE?

Excellent transport links are nearby, with regular bus routes and easy access to Highams Park and Walthamstow Central for Overground and Victoria Line services into Central London.

The high street boasts an array of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and traditional pubs, creating a friendly village-like atmosphere. Families will appreciate the close proximity to well-regarded schools, including Chingford Foundation School, Chase Lane Primary and St Mary's Catholic Primary School, all within easy reach.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I love the outdoors as much as the buzz of the city, so Chingford is perfect for me. With Epping Forest on the doorstep, cycling, hiking and exploring are always close by, while transport links take you into the city in under half an hour. Moving between Chingford Mount and North Chingford for a pub, café or takeaway means there is plenty of choice. I often meet friends at The Rusty Bike for Thai food, a wide beer selection or a game of football. Weekends are for the Kings Head, with its sunny beer garden and cosy roasts in winter. Travelling between appointments is a joy thanks to the friendly community, where you are often greeted with a smile. The area's diversity adds to its appeal, with international takeaways and supermarkets offering new tastes to discover. Evenings are for dog walks at Yates Meadow, where peaceful hills meet city skylines. Chingford truly has something for everyone and is more affordable than much of London".
