The Land

The land comprises a single enclosure bounded by Cornish hedges with some hedgerow trees providing shelter and shade, with a gated entrance off Granny Polly Lane. The land is level to gently sloping and would be ideal for hobby farming, horticultural, pets or poultry.

The land is situated nearby to Tregonning, Godolphin and Tresowes Hills and is situated within an Area of Great Landscape Value and a World Heritage Site. There is good riding out in the immediate vicinity over the former mining tracks and trails and country lanes.

There are good local services, village shops, public houses in the nearby village of Breage, Ashton, Praa Sands and Rosudgeon and further amenities in the well served towns of Helston, Penzance.

Agent's Notes:

1. The sale of this land will be subject to an overage clause, triggered by residential planning consent being obtained on the land within 25 years of completion. 25% of any enhanced value will be payable to the vendors or their successors.
2. It is believed Japanese Knotweed is present on site. No survey has been undertaken, prospective buyers must reply on their own inspection and due diligence.

Services

No services are connected to the land. Interested parties are advised to make their own enquiries to the relevant service providers. NB. It is thought that mains water is in the lane.

Not to scale. For indicative purposes only.
