Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

Presented in show home condition throughout and benefitting from two allocated parking spaces, this three-bedroom semi-detached house enjoys open views over parkland along with distant views to the hills. Offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

The accommodation on offer briefly comprises a storm porch leading into a hallway which also offers a useful understairs cupboard, perfect for shoes and coats along with access to the principal rooms. The spacious kitchen/diner is situated to the front aspect and provides a contemporary array of matching wall and base units with contrasting worktops along with plenty of space for all kitchen appliances alongside a wall mounted boiler and adequate space for dining furniture. The real focal point to the room is the lovely uninterrupted views towards the Quantocks. The generous sitting room expands the width of the house with plenty of space for everyday soft furnishings and benefits from French doors opening directly into the rear garden. Completing the ground floor is a useful cloakroom.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms; two of which are doubles bedrooms along with a single which the current homeowner uses as a dressing room whilst the master bedrooms overlooks the rear aspect and offers a modern en-suite. Completing the internal accommodation is the family bathroom providing a white three piece suite.

Externally the property offers two allocated parking spaces along with side gated access to the level rear garden, which is fully enclosed by fencing and offers a useful shed and has the added benefit of an extended patio area, perfect for entertaining in the warmer months. 18 Odette Avenue is close to road networks and decorated throughout in neutral tones thus allowing an incoming buyer to simply move straight in.
