Since its completion in 2012, The Samphire Apartments has stood as a defining landmark of Padstow's waterside architecture, a masterful fusion of contemporary design and estuary panorama. Number 8 occupies a coveted first-floor position, its elevation affording sweeping, uninterrupted vistas across the Camel Estuary.

The journey begins in a gracious entrance hall, where rich wood flooring and generous fitted storage set an immediate tone of considered luxury. Beyond, double doors reveal the principal living space, and with it, an arresting first glimpse of the water. Few residences in Padstow can lay claim to a view of this calibre; here, the estuary unfurls toward the open sea, framed by Rock and Daymer Bay to one side and the Iron Bridge and Padstow's historic harbour to the other. This exceptional outlook is the room's undisputed centrepiece, showcased through expansive bi-fold doors that open onto a private balcony, the perfect stage for al fresco entertaining or quiet contemplation overlooking the water.

Bathed in soft coastal light, reflected from the estuary below, the living space is finished with a refined, contemporary sensibility. To the rear, a sleek kitchen offers understated yet high-specification cabinetry and integrated appliances, while zoned underfloor heating, timber flooring and recessed LED lighting continue throughout, hallmarks of the development's exacting build quality.

Two generously proportioned double bedrooms occupy the rear of the apartment. The principal suite enjoys its own Juliette balcony and rear aspect, complemented by an en-suite shower room finished in floor-to-ceiling tiling with contemporary sanitaryware. The second bedroom is served by a beautifully appointed family bathroom, featuring a full bath, separate enclosed shower and high-end styling throughout.

Set within a gated development, Samphire offers residents an enviable sense of privacy and exclusivity. No. 8 further benefits from designated owner parking, a secure storage unit, and audio-visual entry system, combining effortless convenience with complete peace of mind
