LOCATION

Stamford has a unique blend of history, stunning architecture and niche shopping. the property has easy access of the A1 connecting to other major road networks. The city of Peterborough provides the main city rail links (London Kings Cross approx. 50-55 mins) and Stamford has the advantage of its own railway station which provides direct routes to Leicester and Birmingham.

DESCRIPTION

21 St Mary's Street is a prominent Gothic-inspired Grade II* Listed, stone fronted building in the heart of Stamford, this well-presented period property offers a combination of character, scale and flexibility. The building benefits from generous room sizes, high ceilings and excellent natural light. The property was most recently a beauty and holistic treatments centre and previously a doctors surgery, it would easily continue with a similar or other commercial use.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, reception area, a large treatment room with another separate room to the rear, w.c and kitchen with access to the basement. The first floor has a sizeable landing area and multiple treatment rooms, all currently fitted with showers and one with a statement claw footed bath, there is a separate w.c also. Gas fired central heating is installed. Outside there is a small enclosed courtyard.
