Hatt is a hamlet in the civil parish of Saltash in east Cornwall, England, UK. It is on the A388 road from Callington to Saltash. Close-by is a garage/convenience store, a large garden centre with local produce shops, and a business centre with various superstores, including a large Waitrose. Nearby, Saltash is a picturesque town that lies just across the River Tamar from Plymouth and is often referred to as the "Gateway to Cornwall". The town centre itself provides many shops and the doctors, dentists, library, and leisure centre are all close by. There are four primary schools and a secondary school, along with a local health centre and many places of worship. South East Cornwall boasts many waterside villages such as St Germans and Cargreen, all within easy commuting distance to Saltash and the City of Plymouth.
