

24 Western Terrace, Falmouth, TR11 4QP

Guide Price £625,000

A substantial 4 bedroom detached residence, located on Western Terrace close to the town centre and designed by renowned architect Alfred Cornelius. The property was built in the 1920s, retaining many original features and offering an abundance of period detail. Believed to of been owned by the Churchill Family at the beginning of the Second World War, the garden is still home to an air raid shelter constructed at that time. The house now requires renovation, with the accommodation comprising, on the ground floor: porch, entrance hallway, living room, dining room, kitchen and ground floor cloakroom/WC. On the first floor are 4 bedrooms, family bathroom and separate WC. The gardens are a particular feature of the property, extending to over 100' in length and planted with an abundance of mature shrubs and trees. A paved driveway provides off-road parking for 2 cars.
