Agents Note

"Estate agents operating in the UK are required to conduct Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in compliance with the regulations set forth by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) for all property transactions. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to successfully complete these checks before any property transaction can proceed. Our estate agency uses Coadjute's Assured Compliance service to facilitate the AML checks. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check conducted"

Agents Note

Whether or not you qualify for a Shared Ownership home – often called your 'eligibility' – is dependent on three separate factors.

Completing an application with Bromford is the only way to confirm that you are eligible to buy one of our Shared Ownership homes. However, the following provides details of the minimum eligibility requirements.

You are eligible to buy a home through Shared Ownership if the following apply:

Your household income is £80,000 a year or less (£90,000 a year or less in London).

You cannot afford all of the deposit and mortgage payments for a home that meets your needs.

You do not own a property, or part of a property, at time of completing your purchase.

You have good credit history - see affordability below.

Have funds for a deposit and costs of buying a home.

Are over the age of 18.

ENERGY PERFORMANCE CERTIFICATE

The energy efficiency rating is a measure of the overall efficacy of a home. The higher the rating the more energy efficient the home is and the lower the fuel bills will be.

These particulars are intended to give a fair and reliable description of the property but no responsibility for any inaccuracy or error can be accepted and do not constitute an offer or contract. We have not tested any services or appliances (including central heating if fitted) referred to in these particulars and the purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the working order and condition. If a property is unoccupied at any time there may be reconnection charges for any switched off/disconnected or drained services or appliances - All measurements are approximate.

THINKING OF SELLING?
