Description

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this charming character home is believed to be over 100 years old and is full of warmth, charm and original features. While it would benefit from some cosmetic updating, it presents a fantastic opportunity for a buyer to put their own stamp on the property and create a wonderful long-term home.

Set over two floors, the accommodation is both spacious and well laid out. The welcoming reception hall leads through to a generous dining room, complete with an attractive period fireplace, creating the perfect space for family meals or entertaining. A step down takes you into the kitchen, with a rear hallway and useful utility area providing access to the enclosed rear garden. Also accessed from the reception hall is a comfortable living room, ideal for relaxing at the end of the day.

Upstairs, the property offers two generous double bedrooms, both retaining their original fireplaces, adding to the home's character and appeal. A spacious four-piece family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

Outside, the front of the property is enhanced by a raised planted border with a mature Acer tree and established shrubs, creating an attractive first impression. To the rear, the well-maintained garden provides a lovely outdoor space to enjoy throughout the seasons.

With its abundance of original character, generous room sizes and excellent potential, this delightful home offers a rare opportunity for buyers looking to create something truly special.

Situated a short walk away is the market town of Chepstow with its attendant range of facilities. There are plenty of shops, bars, cafes and restaurants as well as good junior and comprehensive schools in the area. Chepstow is known as the gateway to the Wye Valley, itself a designated area of outstanding natural beauty. For those that enjoy the outdoors, there are many walks in the area including the Wye Valley Walk, which starts at Chepstow leisure Centre and Wales Coastal Footpath which starts in Chepstow and follows the coastline all the way to North Wales.

For the commuter, there are excellent road networks close by plus bus and rail links to be found in Chepstow. All of which bring Newport, Cardiff, Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham within commuting distance.
