GUIDE PRICE £575,000

An intriguing, detached character property which deftly contrasts the Old and the New with a Grade II Listed Eighteenth-Century Dovecote, set within beautiful private grounds and located in a quiet but accessible rural village.

The Dovecote, 5 Wrelton Hall Gardens is a unique character property which provides modern accommodation with the skilful incorporation into the property of a listed eighteenth-century Dovecote as the sitting room. The house was constructed in the early 1990s at the head of what is a small development of just 11 individual properties built within the former grounds of Wrelton Hall. The Dovecote occupies an exceptionally private and sheltered position at the heart of the development, with beautifully landscaped grounds and south facing gardens, along with large double garage and plenty of private parking.

The well-maintained and well-proportioned accommodation amounts to 1,722 square feet in total and in brief comprises; entrance lobby and hallway, dining kitchen with a range of modern fitted units and appliances and an adjoining utility with cloakroom. There are a versatile range of reception rooms including, study, snug/study, dining or living room and the Dovecote sitting room. On the first floor: large, dual aspect master bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms and a house bathroom with modern suite. Central heating is gas-fired, and the windows are double glazed in timber frames. Quietly located and only three miles from Pickering.

LOCATION

Wrelton is a small rural village some three miles west of the bustling market town of Pickering and close to the southern boundary of the North York Moors National Park. The village has an excellent public house, village hall and playing field with playground. Primary education can be found in the neighbouring village of Sinnington, whilst secondary education and all other amenities are close by in Pickering. The village lies just off the A170 and is convenient to Kirkbymoorside, Helmsley, Thirsk & the East Coast.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

The property is located at the head of the Wrelton Hall Gardens cul-de-sac and the road and additional access is from the gavelled drive shared with Wrelton Hall. Immediately on the right is a large block paved parking area to the front of the double garage. A wrought iron gate set within an arch gives access to the front door. A stone flagged path leads across the front of the house to the flagged patio on the south side of the Dovecote. A path continues along the rear elevation to the northern gable end. The garden is partly walled, with deep shrub beds filled with a wide range of flowering perennials and herbaceous plantings.

At the centre is a lawned garden and within the grounds are a number of trees including a magnificent Cedar of Lebanon and maturing flowering cherries, laburnum, bay and buddleia. The lawn slopes gently southwards and borders are planted with interesting and unusual shrubs. Southern and western boundaries are hedged with evergreen laurel and beech. The garden has been made dog proof and there is an outside water supply.

DOUBLE GARAGE

5.66 m (18'7") x 5.40 m (17'9")

Twin metal up and over doors, one with electric controls. Electric power and light. Tumble drier point. Concrete floor. Parking for a number of vehicles including a motor home on the block paved drive to the front of the garage.
