Lovage Close

Tucked away within a peaceful cul de sac in the heart of Pontprennau, this attractive semi detached home offers a calm and balanced setting for modern family life. The house is quietly positioned, yet remains closely connected to the wider rhythms of the city, creating a sense of privacy without isolation.

Inside, the accommodation unfolds with a natural flow. A welcoming living space sits at the front of the house, leading through to a bright kitchen and dining area that opens directly onto the garden, allowing daily life to move easily between interior and exterior spaces. The layout feels practical and considered, offering comfort, light and a sense of ease throughout. Upstairs, three bedrooms provide flexible accommodation for families, professionals or those working from home, supported by a well appointed bathroom and generous storage.

Outside, the rear garden is arranged to suit both relaxation and everyday use, combining a substantial decked seating area with a broad lawn, all enclosed to create privacy and security. Off road parking and side access further enhance the practicality of the home.

Lovage Close sits within one of east Cardiff's most popular residential communities. Pontprennau is well known for its strong neighbourhood feel, excellent access to local schools, and a wide range of nearby amenities including supermarkets, cafés and local services. Green spaces and parkland are close at hand, while the nearby countryside offers open walking routes and recreational space. Transport links are excellent, with easy access to the A48 and M4, regular bus services into Cardiff city centre, and convenient road connections to Newport and the wider south Wales region. This is a home that combines location, comfort and long term appeal in a setting that continues to grow in desirability.
