Material Information Data Cont

The owner is required to offer the property back to the landlord (a process called 'offering an assignment') before they are allowed to sell it to someone else.

A new owner cannot be officially registered until a certificate is provided by the landlord or a legal professional. This certificate confirms that specific rules within the lease (clauses 10.3, 10.4, and 10.5) have been followed correctly. The property is subject to rules in the lease that prevent certain types of legal transfers or changes in ownership unless the correct procedures are followed.
