- ♥ Detached House Built In 1834
- ♥ Three Bedrooms
- ♥ 1.2 Acre Plot
- ♥ Modernisation Required

About this property

A three bedroom detached house situated on the outskirts of Abergavenny, dating from 1834 and having been occupied by the current owners for over forty years. The property now presents an exciting opportunity for new owners to modernise and potentially extend, subject to the necessary planning consents. Set within an impressive plot of approximately 1.2 acres, the house is approached via a driveway providing ample parking and gated vehicular access to the gardens. The accommodation begins with an entrance hall, with doors leading to the living room, dining room, ground-floor bathroom and stairs to the first floor. The living room features an attractive stone fireplace with a multi-fuel stove, while the dining room leads through to the kitchen/breakfast room, which spans the rear of the property and benefits from patio doors opening onto the garden. A four-piece bathroom is also located on the ground floor. Upstairs, a spacious landing provides access to two double bedrooms and a single bedroom. A particular feature of the property is the extensive gardens, which lie predominantly to the side and rear of the house. Mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by mature trees and established hedging, they offer a generous and private outdoor space with considerable potential. The approach from Hereford Road divides to either side, with parking for several vehicles to the right and, to the left, a wide gate providing vehicular access into the gardens. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful detached home in a wonderful setting, just a short drive from Abergavenny and its wide range of amenities. With scope to modernise and potentially extend, subject to planning, the property offers the opportunity to create a truly special family home.

Abergavenny is a popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorenge and the Sugar Loaf mountains. Known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

Proceed out of Abergavenny on the A465 towards Hereford, after the junction for mardy the property can be found on the left hand side after approximately half a mile. The What3Words reference is: thrashed.applause.burst
