Apartment 3

The Old Police House, Park Street, Hungerford, RG17 0EA

Guide £425,000

A fabulous ground floor apartment with a private entrance, not communal and a garden of its own.

Description

The Old Police House is a tasteful and sympathetic conversion of a distinctive Victorian building in to four luxury apartments, together with an additional house. The accommodation includes a good-sized kitchen/dining room with a smart range of units, space for a table, 'barrel' vaulted ceiling and a door to the garden. There is a sitting room with an exposed brick fireplace (not in use). There is an inner hall with storage, two well balanced bedrooms, one of which has an en suite shower room. There is also a full family bathroom. The property has attractive sash windows, high ceilings, deep skirtings and traditional style radiators completing the attention to detail that has been shown throughout. Outside there is an allocated parking space, and rarely, a privately owned low maintenance style garden. A viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the quality of this lovely home.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).

Directions

From our office, turn right down the High Street and first right into Park Street. The Old Police House will be found along on the left hand side.
