

White Post Street

A New Landmark for South East London

Computer Generated Image

Welcome to White Post Street; a collection of new homes thoughtfully crafted for modern lifestyles. At the epicentre of South East London cool, where New Cross Road meets Old Kent Road, Southwark blends into Lewisham, and Peckham rubs shoulders with Deptford, ready to flourish, and one with excellent connections across the local area and into the capital.

Life, reclaimed

This site has been transformed into 25 striking apartments and nine commercial spaces. Six of which are railway arches refurbished to house a handy mix of cafés, studios and independent shops.

Shared Ownership – a more affordable way to buy

We believe home ownership should be within easier reach, so 20 of the apartments at White Post Street are available through shared ownership. It's an affordable way to take your first step onto the property ladder because you buy a share in your home and pay rent on the rest. And you can choose to buy more shares later, until you own your home outright.

A colourful character

At White Post Street you're at the heart of some of London's most creative neighbourhoods. Nearby areas like Peckham, Deptford and New Cross are brimming with a sense of community and vibrant diversity. The unusually high number of independent businesses, art spaces and cultural initiatives bring personality and charm in bucketloads.

Tastes like opportunity

With so many heritages combining, it's no wonder this is one of the best foodie spots in London, offering everything from street food stalls to specialist delis and refined restaurants. It's a place full of colour, contrast and charisma. A place where so much opportunity awaits and origins are not forgotten.

Fun on tap

South East London offers opportunities for revelry of all kinds. And White Post Street puts them in easy reach. Whether you're into hi-fi bars or intimate poetry readings, underground DJs or rooftop restaurants, it's all here for the taking.

Just a 2-minute walk from White Post Street, you can enjoy live acts at AMP studios and delicious Vietnamese dishes at Dac San Xu Nghe. A 7-minute stroll down New Cross Road is Edwardian gem, The Old Library, serving locally brewed craft ale, and Corner offering quality coffee and cocktails.

See London in a new light

Popular Peckham, also just 1.5 miles away, is another option for whiling away the weekends. Much-loved Peckhamplex boasts the cheapest cinema seats in London, The Carpet Shop is the place to dance your socks off and head to Forza for dinner with dazzling views.

Hungry for more? You can be at London Bridge, the South Bank or Dulwich Village within 20 minutes.

Cross into the culture club

Continue into New Cross Gate and the options widen. Tuck into seasonal dishes at The Rose Pub & Kitchen, catch an exhibition at Goldsmiths CCA and party at The Amersham Arms.

New Cross Gate segues into Deptford, 1.5 miles away, where the fun and cultural variety continues. Choose from indie restaurants, bars and pop-ups under the railway arches at the Market Yard. See a show or join a workshop at buzzing arts centre The Albany and discover new talent at the APT gallery.

Go independent

From Peckham's Bellenden Road to Deptford Market Yard, there's no shortage of independent shops in this part of the capital. Pick up Scandi style at D.A.Y Boutique, artisan cheese at The Deli Society and vintage vinyl at Upside Down Records.

From top ups to big shops

For supermarket shops, you can stroll to Aldi in 4 minutes, Lidl in 9 minutes and Sainsbury's Superstore in 16 minutes. At Lewisham Shopping Centre, 22 minutes away by bus, the high street stores include Boots, H&M, M&S and Waterstones. And you can be browsing Canary Wharf's five malls in less than half an hour.

Green for go

At White Post Street, you're a short stroll from two local parks, so you're never far from feeling the grass beneath your feet. It's only a 7-minute walk to Bridgehouse Meadows, which has plenty of wide-open space for kite flying and kicking a ball about. And Brimmington Park is just a 4-minute walk away. With an outdoor gym and playground, is a great place to burn off steam.

Spread your wings

For more space to roam, you can be at Peckham Rye Park and Common in 18 minutes by bus. Spanning 113 acres, it features ornamental and water gardens, woodland, a lake, an adventure playground and a bowling club.

Peckham Rye Park

Selfcare to suit you

Whether you're into pilates or pounding the treadmill, there are plenty of options for staying active in easy reach of White Post Street. Join classes or get personal training at Twist Studios (a 10-minute walk away). Enjoy rooftop yoga at the iconic Bussey Building (16 minutes by bus or a 7-minute cycle). Feel reformed at Plum Pilates (a 21-minute walk or 6-minute cycle). And enjoy a swim, sauna, gym session and more at Peckham Pulse Leisure Centre (a 22-minute walk or 6-minute cycle).

About us

Hexagon is a charitable, not for profit housing association based in South East London, whose roots go back to June 1969 when Shackleton Housing Association was formed. We primarily operate in the boroughs of Lewisham, Southwark, Greenwich, Bexley and Croydon. Hexagon was founded in 1990.

As a business with social objectives, we invest all our trading surpluses and more in providing good homes and services. We now own and manage around 4,500 homes working closely with our local authority partners to ensure that we complement and help to deliver their strategic housing needs.

We are regulated by the Regulator for Social Housing (RSH) which is a Government agency responsible for registering and monitoring.

We have a development programme in excess of 400 new homes over a four year period, utilising grant from the Government (the Greater London Authority or GLA), and a moderate Shared Ownership programme.

We provide housing for people in the greatest need who cannot afford other ways of getting a home and have been nominated by their local Council housing team. We are governed by a remunerated Board of 12 people which currently meets six times a year. There are also four sub-committees: Audit & Risk; People; Customer Services and Investment.

We are committed to promoting equal opportunities both in the provision of services and in our employment practices. Hexagon serves diverse communities in South East London and the surrounding areas. We value diversity and recognise the benefits of employing a diverse workforce in relation to our customer service and growth as an organisation.
