DESCRIPTION

Exclusive Great Glen Setting – Countryside Views – Double Garage – Solar Panels – Scope to Extend or Reconfigure (STPP) – Walk to Gartree Grammar School

A HOME WITH A SETTING THAT FEELS JUST THAT LITTLE BIT DIFFERENT. Set back from the roadside and approached over a bridge into an exclusive residential area of Great Glen, this individual home combines a peaceful village lifestyle with countryside views, a double garage, solar panels and exciting potential to extend or tailor the existing layout to your own design (STPP).

Arrive home and immediately leave the road behind. The tucked-away position creates a sense of privacy and calm, while the outlook towards open countryside at the rear brings nature into everyday life.

Inside, the existing accommodation provides an opportunity to create a home around the way you want to live. Whether you envisage larger open-plan family spaces, working-from-home areas or additional accommodation, there is scope to alter the layout or extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Outside, the setting becomes part of the lifestyle. Imagine starting the morning with countryside views, enjoying peaceful evenings away from the bustle, yet still having village life within easy reach. A double garage provides valuable parking, storage or workshop space.

Further benefits include solar panels, electric heating and double glazing, with gas mains connection also available at the property.

Great Glen offers the balance many buyers search for – village shops, cafés, restaurants, a farm shop and Post Office, with Gartree Grammar School within walking distance. The A6 provides straightforward connections towards Leicester and Market Harborough, while surrounding countryside is ready to explore at weekends.

Looking for more than just a house? Come and experience the setting, views and potential for yourself – contact Hunters Wigston today to arrange your viewing and start imagining what you could create here.
