CHARMING TWO DOUBLE BEDROOM PERIOD HOME WITH PRIVA

Built circa 1900, this delightful two double bedroom, three-storey end of terrace home offers an abundance of character, well-proportioned accommodation and a wonderfully private setting, all within easy reach of Chard town centre.

The property is entered via an entrance porch which opens into a spacious open-plan living and dining room, creating a welcoming and versatile living space ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. To the rear, a single-storey extension provides a fitted kitchen.

Stairs rise to the first floor where you will find the family bathroom, fitted with a bath with shower over, wash hand basin, WC and useful built-in storage. Also on this floor is the second double bedroom, positioned to the front elevation.

The second floor is dedicated to an impressive master bedroom, enjoying a front aspect window and useful eaves storage, creating a bright and spacious principal suite.

Outside, the property benefits from a private, low-maintenance rear garden featuring a paved pathway, gravelled seating area and timber storage shed, providing an ideal space for outdoor dining or relaxing. A particular feature is the private pedestrian gate giving direct access to a secluded open green space situated behind Chard Museum, offering a peaceful setting rarely found so close to the town.

Resident-only off-road parking is available via a private car park, adding further convenience to this attractive home.

This charming period property would make an excellent first-time purchase, investment opportunity or home for those seeking character accommodation with outdoor space and convenient access to local amenities. Early viewing is highly recommended.
