Welcome to Ogston View—an exclusive collection of just four architecturally inspired barn-style homes by the highly regarded Briddon Homes, beautifully positioned within the peaceful Derbyshire village of Woolley Moor. Blending contemporary design with the timeless character of the surrounding landscape, this is a development where striking architecture, exceptional craftsmanship and rural living come together effortlessly.

Built from natural stone and thoughtfully designed with sustainability at their core, each home combines enduring quality with modern efficiency. Solar panels, premium aluminium windows and doors, and carefully considered construction ensure these homes are as future-focused as they are beautiful, delivering impressive energy performance without compromising on style.

Occupying its own private plot, Spinnaker House offers an exceptional 3,037 sq ft of beautifully curated living space across three impressive floors. At the heart of the home is a bespoke Pre Eminence kitchen, complete with a range of high-specification integrated appliances, while a series of elegant living spaces—including two formal reception rooms and a spectacular open-plan dining area—create a home designed as much for entertaining as it is for everyday family life. Six generously proportioned bedrooms and three beautifully appointed bathrooms, including two luxurious en-suites, provide exceptional flexibility, while the principal suite enjoys the indulgence of its own dressing room and private en-suite bathroom. Outside, a generous driveway, private gardens and an adjoining double garage complete a home that offers the perfect balance of refined luxury and countryside tranquillity.
