AN OLD ORCHARD TUCKED AWAY ON THE EDGE OF THE VILLAGE

GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

This is a rare opportunity to purchase a small parcel of land on the very edge of Gerrans village adjoining the narrow unmade lane leading down to Polingey Creek. It will be of particular interest to those living nearby in both Gerrans and Portscatho wanting a parcel of land for an allotment, orchard or possibly conservation purposes. It is a tranquil haven well away from passing traffic and in an area where such parcels of land are at a premium.

The villages of Gerrans and neighbouring Portscatho between them offer a good range of facilities including two public houses, social club, galleries, post office and general store, primary school and even a doctors surgery. The village is situated approximately five miles from St. Mawes which has a regular foot passenger ferry service to Falmouth. The city of Truro is approximately sixteen miles by road but there is also a short cut route via the King Harry Ferry. Sailing facilities are available at nearby Percuil, there are a variety of beaches in the area whilst coastal and inland walks abound and most of which are owned and protected by the National Trust.

THE LAND

This is comprised in one gently sloping enclosure which is currently totally overgrown. There are however a number of fruit trees and a stream which flows within the boundary. Close to the access lane there are the remains of an old garden shed previously used for the storage of tools etc. The land extends to 0.57 of an acre or thereabouts.
