£180,000

A traditional semi-detached house situated in a popular residential location.

The reception hall has stairs rising to the first-floor landing and a door to the pleasant lounge with a front facing bay window. Off here is a dining kitchen which has an attractive range of modern units with contrasting work surfaces and a stainless-steel sink and drainer. From the kitchen is a rear lobby with access to a WC.

On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the property stands back from the road beyond a lawn fore garden. To the rear of the property lies a good size garden.

The property is situated in a traditional, established location which is very popular, having local facilities and schools nearby. The county town centre of Stafford has a mainline intercity railway station with regular services to London Euston, some of which take only approximately 1 hour 20 minutes. Junction 14 of the M6 is a couple of minutes' drive away and provides direct access into the national motorway network and M6 toll.

Agents notes: The property forms part of a multiple Title and therefore this particular property will need to be divided to have its own Land Registry Title. The Land Registry document refers to rights and covenants and a copy is available upon request. The sale is subject to Grant of Probate.

Tenure: Freehold (purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the tenure via their legal representative).

Please note: It is quite common for some properties to have a Ring doorbell and internal recording devices.

Property construction: Standard

Parking: On road

Electricity supply: Mains
