***GUIDE PRICE £975,000 to £1,000,000*** Partridge Farm comprises a delightful four bedroomed farmhouse, stables, outbuildings, menage, woodland and grass meadows, in all extending to 17.064 acres or thereabouts. The house stands in open countryside with far reaching views.

Particular features include a bespoke English Oak fitted kitchen, recently installed solar panels, and a Biomass boiler. The property has been re-roofed in recent years, and the bathrooms are nicely appointed. Electric gates provide access to a courtyard. There is a sizeable and very attractive garden on the south side of the house. The stables are of breezeblock construction under a profile roof, incorporating kickboards, water and electricity. A useful range of outbuildings includes a Workshop, Chalet, Man Shed, 3 Bay Field Shelter, and 2 Bay Open Sided Dutch Barn.

Accommodation briefly provides a reception hall, office, family room, farmhouse kitchen, utility, dining room, sitting room, and cloakroom. The ground floor master bedroom suite comprises a sitting area, dressing room, and shower room. The first floor provides double sized bedrooms, numbers two, three, and four, together with the family bathroom. The menage measures 30m x 60m sand and rubber school with post and rail fencing.

Moorhouse Road is a country lane, a mile or so from Egmonton village, and convenient also for commuting to Newark, Retford, Mansfield, and Nottingham. Access points to the A1 trunk road are within approximately 3 miles. Egmonton is a small village with a local Public House and Restaurant. Tuxford 3 miles has a good range of local shops, and an excellent Secondary School. Riding out in this location is very good with miles of country lanes, wide verges, and bridle paths.

The property is traditionally built probably mid-19th Century with red brick elevations and a pantiled roof. The property has been re-roofed quite recently. The property has immense character and charm. The following accommodation is provided:
