The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A recently renovated detached character cottage situated in the rural village of Penrhiwllan, just 4.5 miles from the popular market town of Newcastle Emlyn. Full of traditional features and personality, this home offers two double bedrooms, two reception rooms, and sits within a just under approx quarter of an acre that has been thoughtfully transformed into a wonderful garden with established fruit trees, shrubs and a kitchen garden. Benefitting from extensive improvements completed in 2021—including a new roof and roof timbers, as well as updated windows and doors—this welcoming and beautifully presented home is ideal for those seeking a more self-sufficient lifestyle, as well as keen gardeners.

The cottage is entered directly into the living room, a cosy and inviting space featuring a charming exposed stone wall and a log-burning stove. A herringbone parquet floor adds warmth and character, with tiled flooring leading through a traditional thumb-latched door into the dining room.

The dining room is full of character, with a feature solid fuel Rayburn oven, wood-panelled walls and exposed wooden beams. There is also space within the room for a double fridge and freezer. From here, an opening leads to the kitchen, where fitted units with pull out drawers run along one wall and are complemented by decorative patterned wall tiles. The kitchen also features a classic Butler sink, a larder cupboard, space for a dishwasher, washing machine and tumble dryer. There is also a side entrance, offering a practical space for storing coats and shoes. Above this area is a mezzanine bed which is cosy space for reading. A sliding door from the kitchen opens into the ground floor shower room.

A staircase from the living room leads to the first floor, where there are two double bedrooms, one of which benefits from a walk-in wardrobe and an airing cupboard. Both bedrooms enjoy views overlooking the garden. The first floor also features a stylish shower room with a combination of wood-panelled and tiled walls.

Externally, the garden lies to the front and side of the property. Measuring approximately just under 0.25 of an acre this is a versatile space. The garden is primarily laid to lawn and enhanced by a variety of mature trees and shrubs, along with a variety of fruit trees, vegetable and flower beds.

There are a number of seating areas throughout the garden, providing ideal spots to relax and enjoy the surroundings. A summer house at the top of the garden has a decked area and log-burning hot tub (available by separate negotiation) and there is an additional summer house and brick building used as a potting shed with patio and pond to the front. There is vehicle access to the side of the house, where there is parking for more than one vehicle. Viewing highly recommended!

The village of Penrhiwllan is located approximately 4.3 miles from Llandysul, which is situated on the edge of the River Teifi and was once a large woollen industry. The River offers great fishing opportunities and the town offers all local amenities such as; Supermarket, primary and secondary schools, vets, public houses, places of worship, local shops and boutiques, and is home to the Llandysul Paddlers Canoe Club. The area boasts naturally beautiful countryside which perfect for exploring the many walks available in the area.

DIRECTIONS

From Cardigan continue to Newcastle Emlyn and take the A475 Lampeter road. Continue through Aberbanc, until you reach the village of Penrhiwllan. The road then forks off left opposite the daffodil inn, take this turning and continue along this road for 0.4 miles and the property will be located on your right hand side denoted by our For Sale Sign.
