Property Introduction

A beautifully presented mid-terraced character property which in recent months has undergone many substantial improvements, including a re-fitted kitchen and shower room.

Upon entering the cottage, one will be greeted by a featured beamed lounge with gas stove with a hallway accessing a well equipped re-fitted kitchen boasting a range of integrated appliances. The re-fitted shower room completes the additional ground floor accommodation. To the first floor are two bedrooms, whilst throughout the cottage, there is a comprehensive gas fired central heating system complemented by uPVC double glazed windows and doors.

Externally, to the rear is an enclosed garden with a lawn, patio and a useful storage shed.

Overall, this is a very well presented home ideal for those buyers looking for a character property within close proximity to local amenities and the A30 trunk road.

Location

Being situated in an ideal position for accessing the town centres of both Camborne and Redruth, the property is just a moment's driving distance away from the main A30 trunk road.

Camborne is a historic town with a rich industrial history - reminders being evident around the local area with former engine houses and mine workings. Within the town centre, there are a number of well known high street shops, as well as independent retailers with access to the mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England. Tehidy Woods is also within a close proximity, being a popular destination for families to enjoy this wooded country park and is also the gateway to the north coast with its majestic clifftop walks and popular villages, such as Portreath and Porthtowan.

The cathedral city of Truro is approximately fifteen miles distant being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce, and is home to the Hall for Cornwall and its gothic three-spired cathedral.
