GENERAL COMMENTS

Treveth Barn is a beautifully appointed reverse-level barn conversion. It is set at the bottom of a beautiful valley, and the garden has been recently landscaped and fenced, with an outstanding decking area perfect for al fresco dining.

The property benefits from a comprehensive range of recent improvements including new double glazing throughout, front and rear electric iroko wooden gates with private intercom, bespoke oak front door, chestnut fencing, large wooden decking area to take advantage of the stunning views over the valley, summer house/studio with power and lighting, car port plus two other excellent sheds.

THE ACCOMMODATION

As you enter through the beautiful bespoke oak front door into a spacious hallway a staircase leads to the first floor. To the ground floor there are four bedrooms as well as a family bathroom. One of the bedrooms is en suite with an additional dressing room.

To the first floor there is a tremendous and spacious open-plan kitchen living space with Vaulted ceilings which adds a feeling of light and space. The kitchen is very well appointed with plenty of cupboards and the Rayburn.

LOCATION

Treveth Barn is situated within the Pentewan Valley, close to the sought-after village of London Apprentice. This charming village offers an excellent balance of rural seclusion and accessibility, surrounded by rolling countryside and mature woodland. The popular Pentewan Trail runs through the village, providing direct access to the south coast and making the area ideal for walkers, cyclists, and nature enthusiasts. The historic market town of St Austell lies approximately 2.3 miles away, while the sandy beaches of Pentewan and Porthpean are within easy reach. The area also benefits from proximity to some of Cornwall's most renowned attractions, including the Eden Project and the Lost Gardens of Heligan. London Apprentice offers peaceful village living with the convenience of nearby amenities and outstanding coastal opportunities.
