Accommodation

We are delighted to present to the market this charming terraced house, beautifully nestled within an area offering excellent public transport links, local amenities, walking and cycling routes. This property is on the market for sale and it offers beneficent accommodation ideal for first-time buyers and families alike.

The property is neutrally decorated throughout, creating a calming environment where personal touches can effortlessly be added. The generous accommodation includes three well-proportioned bedrooms, one reception room and one kitchen. The bedrooms consist of two double bedrooms, ideal for parents and a guest, and a single bedroom perfect for a child or as a study room.

The heart of the home is undeniably the open-plan reception room, offering plenty of space for both relaxation and entertainment. Large windows ensure the room is bathed in natural light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Moving on to the kitchen, it also benefits from a good amount of natural light. This is a space where any culinary enthusiast can truly feel at home. The one bathroom available is designed to provide modern comfort and convenience.

The surrounding area is highly desirable, with easy access to public transport links, local amenities, walking and cycling routes right at your doorstep.
