Set within one of Chelsea's most prestigious private garden squares, this impressive two-bedroom apartment occupies the first floor of a handsome Grade II-listed red-brick building on Cadogan Square.

Spanning more than 1,600 sqft, the residence combines generous proportions and elegant period architecture with a refined contemporary finish. Direct lift access opens into a welcoming entrance hall, leading through to a spectacular bay-fronted reception and dining room. Characterised by high ceilings, original architectural detailing and rich timber flooring, this elegant entertaining space is exceptionally bright, with three full-height French doors opening onto a private balcony overlooking the tranquil communal gardens of the square.

The adjoining kitchen is thoughtfully concealed from the reception space and features sleek bespoke-style cabinetry, integrated appliances and a clean, contemporary aesthetic.

The principal bedroom enjoys its own private balcony. Generous, fitted wardrobes lead through to a beautifully appointed marble bathroom, complete with a walk-in shower and separate bathtub. The second double bedroom is equally well considered, benefiting from a south-facing aspect, fitted storage, a private en-suite bathroom and guest cloakroom.

Benefit from access to the beautifully landscaped private gardens, together with a private tennis court.

Cadogan Square is at the heart of Chelsea and Knightsbridge, moments from the restaurants, shops and cafés of Sloane Street, Pavilion Road and King's Road. Hyde Park is within easy walking distance, while both Knightsbridge and Sloane Square underground stations provide convenient connections across London.

A distinguished Chelsea residence offering an exceptional combination of period elegance, generous living space, private outdoor areas and access to one of London's most exclusive garden squares.
