Wheatsheaf House 106

, Matlock, DE4 3BZ

Welcome to the truly exquisite Wheatsheaf House, presenting a once in a lifetime opportunity to own one of the most historically significant homes in the local area.

Believed to date back to the medieval period, Wheatsheaf House, as it's known today, forms part of a small cluster of properties that tell the story of the local area's rich history. Once a Manor House, and in the 1800's an Inn, in the 1950's the property was locally listed as Grade II* and today is lived in as a magnificent 6 bedroom family home that has been meticulously restored, carefully considering the property's heritage in every detail.

Positioned gracefully overlooking the village green next to St Giles Church, Wheatsheaf House sits in tranquil surroundings and the historic landmark offers stunning architectural beauty right on its doorstep.

Offering a spacious 3433 sqft of accommodation over 3 storeys, the property features 2 formal reception rooms, a dining kitchen, utility room, ground floor WC, 6 generously proportioned bedrooms and 3 bathrooms including the master en-suite.
