A charming and characterful three-bedroom semi-detached home, ideally situated within a convenient and well-established residential area of Macclesfield. Lovingly maintained over the years, this much-loved property retains a wealth of original features including elegant picture rails and decorative ceiling roses, while offering excellent scope for sympathetic modernisation to suit individual tastes.

Fully enclosed and impressive in length, it features a stone-flagged patio, a well-maintained lawn, mature hedging and established shrubberies, raised planting beds, and a pond with water feature that previously housed koi carp. Toward the rear sits a charming summerhouse, and notably, the garden benefits from a power supply running to the bottom, ideal for those seeking workshop or leisure space. A timber-built shed is also included within the sale.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along Park Lane, continuing through the traffic lights at Ryles Park Road. Take the second turning on the right-hand side into Peter Street, where the property can be found on the right-hand side.
