Agent's Perspective

Cobweb Cottage offers a rare balance of space, flexibility and countryside living, all within easy reach of Beverley and Hull.

Set along a quiet country lane, the property extends to around two acres and enjoys open views with regular wildlife passing through, giving it a real sense of space without feeling remote.

The house itself provides roughly 3,500 sq ft of accommodation, arranged to suit a wide range of lifestyles. There are five reception rooms, allowing for a mix of formal and informal spaces, whether that's for family life, working from home or entertaining.

A conservatory adds an extra sitting area with views across the grounds, while the 20' x 18' dining kitchen forms a natural hub of the home, with plenty of room for everyday use and gatherings.

There are four bedrooms in the main house, supported by three bathrooms, offering comfortable living for families or those who regularly host guests.

The layout is practical and well thought through, with good flow between rooms and flexibility in how spaces are used.

One of the standout features is the purpose-built self-contained annex. This provides independent living space, ideal for extended family, guests or even potential income, depending on requirements. It adds a layer of versatility that is increasingly sought after.

Outside, the grounds are equally adaptable. The property includes a range of outbuildings and stables, along with a menage and paddock, making it well suited to equestrian use or those simply wanting more outdoor space.

The gardens are private and manageable, offering a mix of open lawn and more sheltered areas.

Access and parking are straightforward, with a large forecourt that can accommodate multiple vehicles, including larger ones, along with a substantial double garage.

The current owners have invested significantly in the property over the past 25 years, maintaining and improving it throughout.

The result is a well-established home that is ready to be enjoyed, while still offering scope for a new owner to make it their own.
