PROPERTY SUMMARY

Castles Hackney are delighted to offer this beautifully maintained one bedroom ground floor Victorian conversion, providing spacious and characterful accommodation throughout. The property boasts a generous double bedroom, high ceilings that enhance the sense of space and light, and a large reception room featuring exposed original hardwood flooring and an attractive fireplace, creating a warm and inviting living environment. Original hardwood flooring runs throughout the property, with the exception of the kitchen and bathroom. The well-proportioned layout is complemented by a private North West-facing garden, ideal for enjoying afternoon and evening sun. A substantial outhouse provides excellent additional space, perfect for use as a home office, studio, gym or for further storage. Offered in good condition throughout and retaining a wealth of period charm, this attractive home is being sold chain free.

The property is superbly located within easy walking distance of Clapton Overground Station, providing swift connections into Liverpool Street and the City, alongside excellent local bus routes offering convenient access across London. Residents will enjoy close proximity to the green open spaces of both Downs Park and Milfields Park, as well as popular local fitness destinations including BLOK in Clapton. The area offers an abundance of independent cafés, restaurants, local shops and supermarkets, while the vibrant amenities of Stoke Newington High Street and Church Street are just a short walk away. Combining excellent transport links with a strong community feel and a wide range of lifestyle amenities, this location is highly sought after by professionals and first-time buyers alike.
