Stunning Four-Bedroom Barn Conversion with Garage and Garden – Acton Trussell, Staffordshire

Nestled on Bednall Road in the highly desirable village of Acton Trussell, this outstanding four-bedroom barn conversion offers the perfect blend of countryside charm and modern living. Extending to over 2,000 sq. ft., the home combines generous proportions, character features, and contemporary finishes to create a truly special family residence.

From the moment you step inside, the welcoming hallway sets the tone with its stylish tiled flooring. The heart of the home is the impressive open-plan kitchen and living space, fully equipped with integrated appliances, water softening system, and a separate drinking water filtration unit—ideal for those who love to cook and entertain. A striking reception room with exposed beams and feature brickwork delivers a sense of warmth and grandeur, while a separate dining room offers additional versatility for family living.

The property boasts four well-proportioned bedrooms, each with fitted wardrobes, alongside two modern bathrooms, including a stunning family bathroom with freestanding bath and skylight. Outside, the private rear garden is designed for both relaxation and entertaining, complete with an electric remote-controlled sun canopy.

Additional benefits include a detached garage with power and water supply, private parking, and access to open countryside right on your doorstep. Modern services—mains gas, water, and electricity—are all in place, while drainage is managed via a communal treatment system at a modest monthly cost.

Built in 2000, this exceptional home successfully balances the character of its barn origins with all the convenience expected of a modern family home. Perfectly located in a tranquil village yet within easy reach of Stafford town centre, the M6, and rail links to Birmingham, Manchester, and London.

Life Around Acton Trussell

A Picturesque, Historic Village

Acton Trussell is a charming Staffordshire parish of just over 1,200 residents. With roots stretching back to the Domesday Book, it offers a tranquil village feel while being only around four miles southeast of Stafford. Surrounded by open fields and countryside views, it's a peaceful setting with easy access to town life.

Strong Commuter Ties

The village is perfectly placed near junction 13 of the M6, making it an excellent base for commuters across Staffordshire, Shropshire, and the West Midlands. Stafford's mainline train station is also within easy reach, with direct routes to Birmingham, Manchester, and London.

Village Amenities

Local amenities are modest but full of character, with a well-loved country pub, The Moat House.

Active Community Spirit

The Acton Trussell, Bednall & Teddesley Hay Community Centre is the hub of the parish, hosting clubs, activities, and local events. Just a short distance away, Penkridge adds further vibrancy with its regular markets and fairs.

Rich with History & Heritage

The village is steeped in history, from the 13th-century St James Church to evidence of a Roman villa and the historic Moat House building, which remains a focal point of the community.

Nature & Outdoor Living

The surrounding landscape offers beautiful countryside walks and direct access to Cannock Chase Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. It's an ideal location for outdoor pursuits and enjoying nature year-round.

Family-Friendly Environment

Known for its peaceful atmosphere and low crime levels, Acton Trussell is popular with families and professionals alike. The village provides a safe and welcoming environment with space to enjoy the outdoors.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Verification

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Open House Estate Agents Staffordshire, we are legally required to carry out identity verification and anti-money laundering checks on all purchasers. Ongoing monitoring is also conducted throughout the transaction until completion.

To complete these checks, we use Landmark's secure verification platform. This process confirms your identity and source of funds in line with current regulations. It is important to note that this is not a credit check and will have no impact on your credit rating.

The cost of the verification is £30.00 including VAT per buyer. This fee is payable in advance once an offer has been agreed and before a Memorandum of Sale is issued. The charge is non-refundable.

By proceeding with your purchase, you agree to these checks being carried out as required by law.
