LOCATION

Upton is an attractive village set three miles to the East of Southwell, a location which offers relatively direct access into the regional centres of Newark and Nottingham. Upton has a vibrant village community with numerous social events centred around the cricket club, church and village hall. There is a village pub and The Horological Museum with popular Clock House Café. The village also lies within the catchment area of the Minster School in Southwell with daily pick up bus a short walk away. Southwell is a thriving minster town having a useful range of town amenities and professional services grouped principally along a period street scene of Queen Street and King Street. Southwell schooling is of renowned standard across the age ranges and the town offers an excellent range of sporting and cultural activities.
